Event Summary

KC College of Pharmacy organized one day trip to Amritsar under which the students and faculty members visited Golden Temple a historical sikh shrine where they not only took holy bath but also ate holy Prasad and experienced the soothing and divine kirtan. Later they went to Jalianwala Bagh and witnessed the historical site and got to know about the history of this place. In this way the day was filled with so much of exposure, practical knowledge and outside education.

Participants

50+ students and faculty members of KC College of Pharmacy participated in this educational trip.
