Event Summary

The workshop started at 2p.m. In which Ms Maya explained how the innovation can be developed. While stating she said it starts with multiple thoughts in mind which at once seem vague and purposeless but later make us realize that it could be part of innovation. This process enables one to work and think in one particular direction until the desirable results could be found. Further she also explained the steps through which an idea can be turned into innovation and by adding creativity amazing results can be found.

Participants

Students and faculty members of KCGI joined the workshop.
